

Sponsoring Hazards Conference 2026

About Hazards Conference

Following on from the success of last year's National Hazards Conference, the 37th annual conference will be another informative event that safety reps and activists shouldn't miss. As in previous years it will educate, inform and connect safety activists from around the country by helping empower them to prevent risks to workers.

Your sponsorship and support is vital to run this event and helps to reduce the overall cost for attendees. Many activists come alone, or with colleagues year after year..

Conference Activities

In 2025 there were 20 workshops, several plenary sessions, fringe and network meetings, exhibitor stalls, side meetings, awards and quizzes with more than 200 activists and volunteers participating. This fully accessible and inclusive event helps to engage under-represented activists alongside experienced reps get the best from the event.

Why Sponsor Hazards Conference?

- Brings reps and activists together in safety networks from various sectors and multiple unions
- Provides an affordable educational event which explores the 'whole story' on UK worker safety
- Offers reps practical ways to implement safety activities back in their workplaces
- Brings the Hazards Campaign message directly to activists on the front-line

Ready to Sponsor?

The conference is supported by trade unions across the UK along with health and safety officers from most of the trade unions also attending. To ensure the continuation of this highly respected grass-roots event in please consider sponsoring the 37th Hazards conference (see overleaf).

THANK YOU!
